

MILLS MAY QUIT THE EQUITABLE; COOLIDGE IS OUT

Melville E. Ingalls Also Likely to Join Other Directors in Leaving the Service of the Great Insurance Corporation.

T. Jefferson Coolidge, a Boston capitalist, announced in that city to-day that he had resigned as a director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, and that he had also sent word to the Board that under no circumstances will he serve on the committee named last week to select a fitting person to fill the office of Chairman of the Board.

This action of Mr. Coolidge was followed by the announcement of Gov. Higgins in Albany that he did not believe a legislative investigation into the affairs of the Company was desirable, because a committee could not obtain any more facts than will be obtained by Supt. Hendricks, of the Insurance Department. He declared that the Company would be probed to the bottom, and that Mr. Hendricks would do the work.

The resignation of Mr. Coolidge from the Board, following as it does the retirement of E. H. Harriman, Henry C. Frick and Cornelius N. Bliss, the impending resignations of Melville E. Ingalls and D. O. Mills, and the wholesale desertions of general agents in all parts of the country, makes the outlook for the Equitable very grave indeed.

Mr. Coolidge announced his resignation in a formal statement. He said he had been weighing the question for some time and that he had finally made up his mind that he would sever all official connection with the society.

Mr. Mills made no secret to-day of his entire disgust with the situation. He is going to make one last effort to straighten things out by having a man of force and experience placed at the head of the board, with power over all other officers, including President Alexander and Vice-Presidents Hyde and Tarbell, and in this he will have the support of other conservative men on this committee. If the ideas of Mr. Mills and the others are not followed out there is little doubt that Mr. Mills will retire from the Board.

power any evil that now exists will be corrected." "The problem to be done through the Superintendent of Insurance?" was asked.

"Yes," the Governor replied. "Insurance written in this State ought to be put beyond any question as to the reliability and honesty of the corporation giving the insurance."

Gov. Higgins was then asked if he thought that companies other than the Equitable should be probed. He replied that he had not given that subject consideration.

Mr. Coolidge announced his resignation in a formal statement. He said he had been weighing the question for some time and that he had finally made up his mind that he would sever all official connection with the society.

Mr. Mills made no secret to-day of his entire disgust with the situation. He is going to make one last effort to straighten things out by having a man of force and experience placed at the head of the board, with power over all other officers, including President Alexander and Vice-Presidents Hyde and Tarbell, and in this he will have the support of other conservative men on this committee. If the ideas of Mr. Mills and the others are not followed out there is little doubt that Mr. Mills will retire from the Board.

Mr. Coolidge announced his resignation in a formal statement. He said he had been weighing the question for some time and that he had finally made up his mind that he would sever all official connection with the society.

Mr. Mills made no secret to-day of his entire disgust with the situation. He is going to make one last effort to straighten things out by having a man of force and experience placed at the head of the board, with power over all other officers, including President Alexander and Vice-Presidents Hyde and Tarbell, and in this he will have the support of other conservative men on this committee. If the ideas of Mr. Mills and the others are not followed out there is little doubt that Mr. Mills will retire from the Board.

Mr. Coolidge announced his resignation in a formal statement. He said he had been weighing the question for some time and that he had finally made up his mind that he would sever all official connection with the society.

Mr. Mills made no secret to-day of his entire disgust with the situation. He is going to make one last effort to straighten things out by having a man of force and experience placed at the head of the board, with power over all other officers, including President Alexander and Vice-Presidents Hyde and Tarbell, and in this he will have the support of other conservative men on this committee. If the ideas of Mr. Mills and the others are not followed out there is little doubt that Mr. Mills will retire from the Board.

Mr. Coolidge announced his resignation in a formal statement. He said he had been weighing the question for some time and that he had finally made up his mind that he would sever all official connection with the society.

Mr. Mills made no secret to-day of his entire disgust with the situation. He is going to make one last effort to straighten things out by having a man of force and experience placed at the head of the board, with power over all other officers, including President Alexander and Vice-Presidents Hyde and Tarbell, and in this he will have the support of other conservative men on this committee. If the ideas of Mr. Mills and the others are not followed out there is little doubt that Mr. Mills will retire from the Board.

Mr. Coolidge announced his resignation in a formal statement. He said he had been weighing the question for some time and that he had finally made up his mind that he would sever all official connection with the society.

Mr. Mills made no secret to-day of his entire disgust with the situation. He is going to make one last effort to straighten things out by having a man of force and experience placed at the head of the board, with power over all other officers, including President Alexander and Vice-Presidents Hyde and Tarbell, and in this he will have the support of other conservative men on this committee. If the ideas of Mr. Mills and the others are not followed out there is little doubt that Mr. Mills will retire from the Board.

Mr. Coolidge announced his resignation in a formal statement. He said he had been weighing the question for some time and that he had finally made up his mind that he would sever all official connection with the society.

Mr. Mills made no secret to-day of his entire disgust with the situation. He is going to make one last effort to straighten things out by having a man of force and experience placed at the head of the board, with power over all other officers, including President Alexander and Vice-Presidents Hyde and Tarbell, and in this he will have the support of other conservative men on this committee. If the ideas of Mr. Mills and the others are not followed out there is little doubt that Mr. Mills will retire from the Board.

Mr. Coolidge announced his resignation in a formal statement. He said he had been weighing the question for some time and that he had finally made up his mind that he would sever all official connection with the society.

Mr. Mills made no secret to-day of his entire disgust with the situation. He is going to make one last effort to straighten things out by having a man of force and experience placed at the head of the board, with power over all other officers, including President Alexander and Vice-Presidents Hyde and Tarbell, and in this he will have the support of other conservative men on this committee. If the ideas of Mr. Mills and the others are not followed out there is little doubt that Mr. Mills will retire from the Board.

ADMIRABLE TOGO HYDE CALLS ON ROJESTVENSKY.

By T. E. Powers.

CZAR'S SHIPS MUST LEAVE MANILA AT ONCE OR DISARM

Washington Declares that the Russian Vessels Not Having Been Damaged by Sea or Storm Cannot Be Repaired at Philippines Port.

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, June 5.—Admiral Enquist will not be permitted to repair his ships at Manila. This Government has decided that as the injuries to the vessels were not caused either by the sea or storm they will be obliged to refuse permission for the vessels to be repaired there.

To-day Secretary Taft cabled the following instructions to Gov. Wright at Manila regarding the ships:

"Time cannot be given for the repair of the injuries received in battle. Therefore the vessels cannot be repaired unless interned until the end of hostilities."

Admiral Train has been instructed accordingly. It was stated by Secretary Taft that if the Russian vessels agreed to leave Manila in their present condition they were welcome to do so, but as it did not appear that they suffered any damage caused by the sea or storm this Government was obliged to take the position above outlined.

In accordance with the above Admiral Enquist, in strict pursuance of the national policy adopted by this Government, will be allowed to intern his ships, the Aurora, Oleg and Zhemchug.

In case he does not adopt this course his only alternative, after the period allowed by international law has expired, will be to put to sea.

It is fully expected here that Admiral Enquist will decide to intern his ships.

BAD DEFEAT FOR KAISER'S ARMY IN AFRICA

Warmbad, German Headquarters, Falls, and Garrison Annihilated.

LONDON, June 5.—A despatch to a news agency from Cape Town says native reports have been received in official quarters to the effect that Warmbad, the German headquarters in Southwest Africa, has fallen and that the garrison has perished.

BRIDEGROOM, WHO WENT INSANE, DEAD.

STAMFORD, Conn., June 5.—Daniel O'Brien, of Albany, who became violently insane in a New York hotel while on his honeymoon trip, died to-day at the sanitarium of Dr. Frank H. Barnes in this city. Mr. O'Brien was married in Albany about ten days ago. He went to New York with his bride, and while registering at a hotel there became insane. He was removed to Roosevelt Hospital, and later to Bellevue. Subsequently friends brought him to the sanitarium here in an automobile.

MILK CRUST ON BABY

Lost All His Hair. Scratched Till Blood Ran. Grateful Mother Tells of His

CURE BY CUTICURA FOR 75c.

"When our baby boy was three months old, he had the milk crust very badly on his head, so that all the hair came out, and it itched so bad he would scratch until the blood ran. I got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. I applied the Cuticura and put a thin cap on his head, and before I had used half of the box it was entirely cured, his hair commenced to grow out nicely again, and he had no more trouble. (Signed) Mrs. H. P. Holmes, Ashland, Or."

LEEDIR

Relative cost of Cotton vs Linen is

LINEN	75%
COTTON	25%

MOST 15c. COLLARS ARE COTTON. Then why do you still buy 15c. cotton collars when your money could buy 15c. Linen ones? "Triangle" LINEN Collars are "Linen" (legally stamped) and cost no more than cotton ones.

Write for "Information about Collars."

TRIANGLE LINEN COLLARS

15c. Each. Two for 25c. 4-ply 1/2 size. VAN ZANDT, JACOBS & CO., TROY, N. Y.

CANDY

SPECIAL FOR MONDAY.

STRAWBERRY MACARONS. Pound 10c

ASSORTED FRUIT AND NUT. Pound 15c

SPECIAL FOR TUESDAY.

VANILLA MARSHMALLOWS. Pound 10c

CHOCOLATE COVERED LON-DON BUTTER TOFFEE. Pound 15c

54 BARCLAY ST. COR. WEST ST. 29 CORTLANDT ST. COR. CHURCH

A tonic that tones

Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge

CARPET The C. H. BROWN CO. 221 & 223 E. 85th St. Telephone 4-1111

CLEANSING COMPRESSED AIR. Talcott, Reliance.

DIED.

BOLAND.—June 3, ANDREW BOLAND, son of the late Michael and Catherine Boland, and brother of Thomas, James, and Catherine Boland, in his fifty-ninth year. Funeral from his late residence, 50 E. 42d street, Tuesday, June 6, at 2 P. M.

LAUNDRY WANTS—MALE.

EXPERIENCED MAN on winnowers. Mutual Laundry, 525 W. 24th St.

LAUNDRY WANTS—FEMALE.

GIRLS WANTED. Columbia Steam Laundry, 447 W. 125th St.

STARCHING, sorting and collars. Columbia Steam Laundry, 447 W. 125th St.

GIRL, experienced in collar department. Columbia Steam Laundry, 447 W. 125th St.

IRONER, first-class shirt-waist and skirt ironer for night laundry. Brody Brothers, 447 W. 125th St.

Fierce Fight

to quit

COFFEE

But easy when you have choice, well made

POSTUM

EIGHT YEARS IN PRISON FOR FORGER LOBLEY

Swindler Got $27,816 Out of Equitable on Stolen Policy.

Samuel Lobleby, who, although an humble outsider, got $27,816 from the Equitable Life Assurance Society through an up-to-date financial transaction, was sentenced by Judge Crane in the Kings County Court, Brooklyn, to-day to serve eight years in Sing Sing Prison.

Lobleby was tried last week on a charge of grand larceny in the sum of $27,816. He was convicted and sentenced to eight years in Sing Sing for a similar crime.

Lobleby was tried last week on a charge of grand larceny in the sum of $27,816. He was convicted and sentenced to eight years in Sing Sing for a similar crime.

Mr. Martin, in his plea for Lobleby to-day, admitted that Lobleby was an ex-convict and had served years in Sing Sing for a similar crime.

"His ten-year sentence," explained Mr. Martin, "was initiated six years after the commission of the offense. When he got out of prison he came to New York and worked as an engineer. He was an honest man until these checks were brought in by him."

His experience in prison had undermined his moral nature and he cashed the checks. He could not resist temptation."

Judge Crane was not impressed by the plea. He said that Lobleby's experience in prison should have been a lesson to him. He took a chance and lost, and now he must stand the consequences.

Lobleby's wife was in the court-room. He said that she heard the eight-year sentence and became hysterical, and was carried out by court officers.

TOOK 9 POLICEMEN TO HOLD MORPHINE-CRAZED WOMAN.

Mrs. Lillian Dodge Had Tried to Jump Through a Closed Window.

When Mrs. Lillian Dodge, twenty-six years old, who lives with her husband on the top floor of the two-story house at No. 609 East One Hundred and Forty-third street, became violent from the effects of morphine to-day and screamed so loud that she aroused the neighborhood, some one telephoned to Police headquarters that she was being murdered.

A patrol wagon was hurried off to Mrs. Dodge's home. Though they found that no murder was being committed, she was so violent that it required most of the force of police to get her into an ambulance and send her to the Bellevue psychiatric ward.

Dr. Lawrence, the surgeon, called from Lincoln Hospital, said the woman was suffering from chronic morphine poisoning. Persons who live in the house say Mrs. Dodge tried to jump out of a window while it was closed, and she was caught.

NEW HAVEN ROAD TO SPEND $1,000,000.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 5.—It has been definitely decided by the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company that it will expend $1,000,000 upon a new road from New Haven to New York City.

$50,000 FOR MAN THREATENING GIRL

John J. Tonkin Seeks Mysterious Scoundrel Who Writes Terrorizing Letters—Little Child Constantly Kept Under Strict Surveillance.

(Special to The Evening World.)

OWEGO, June 5.—Tired of being harassed by a letter-writer who for two years has threatened to kidnap his daughter, Rosamond, and whose latest communication demanded $50,000, John Jay Tonkin, one of Owego's wealthiest manufacturers, says that he will give that sum to discover who the guilty person is.

The writer is something of an artist, because he has illustrated several of his communications with sketches of little Rosamond, one of them showing her with a gun pointed toward her head and another picturing the little girl as being chloroformed.

Notwithstanding these threats not once in the child's life has anybody made any apparent effort to seize her, although there have been opportunities, and this only serves to add to the mystery.

Mr. Tonkin, who is in Owego, has been unable to locate the writer. He has offered a reward of $50,000 for the man who can locate the writer. He has also offered a reward of $50,000 for the man who can locate the writer.

Private detectives have undertaken to locate the fellow, for a man they are certain it is, and now two New York Central detectives are helping.

The Owego police have suspicions, but have not succeeded in locating the letter-writer to their satisfaction.

Three years ago one of the Tonkin's three daughters, Virginia, died, and the body of the child was buried in the cemetery. The body was buried in the cemetery.

Another trouble came to the family a few months ago when Harold G. Tonkin, the son, recently wed Caroline of Norwich, Conn., died. After a separation arranged by his parents, he was never out of the sight of his mother.

Mr. Tonkin had much trouble and notoriety straightening out this tangle. The body of the child was buried in the cemetery. The body was buried in the cemetery.

Mr. Tonkin had much trouble and notoriety straightening out this tangle. The body of the child was buried in the cemetery. The body was buried in the cemetery.

Mr. Tonkin had much trouble and notoriety straightening out this tangle. The body of the child was buried in the cemetery. The body was buried in the cemetery.

Mr. Tonkin had much trouble and notoriety straightening out this tangle. The body of the child was buried in the cemetery. The body was buried in the cemetery.

Mr. Tonkin had much trouble and notoriety straightening out this tangle. The body of the child was buried in the cemetery. The body was buried in the cemetery.

Mr. Tonkin had much trouble and notoriety straightening out this tangle. The body of the child was buried in the cemetery. The body was buried in the cemetery.

Mr. Tonkin had much trouble and notoriety straightening out this tangle. The body of the child was buried in the cemetery. The body was buried in the cemetery.

HERO COMES NEAR MAKING LAST RESCUE

Roundsman O'Laughlin's Life Even Now in the Balance in Hospital.

If Roundsman O'Laughlin ever gets out of the Williamsburg Hospital, where he was taken to-day from the East River, he should receive another medal for heroism to add to his already brilliant collection.

The young roundsman and Policeman Burke, both of the Clymer Street station, were standing at the head of the Division Avenue pier to-day when they saw a splash and a scream of fear.

O'Laughlin has pulled a dozen men, women and children out of the river, and it has become a matter of custom for him to get out of the water.

Whipping off his coat and helmet and tossing his belt and revolver to the ground he sprang to the end of the pier and threw himself head first into the river.

When he saw first from him the head of a gray-haired man bobbing above the surface, his arms stretched wildly in an effort to keep above the water. With powerful overhand strokes the policeman, almost reaching him as he sank beneath the current.

The roundsman did not wait for him to come up, but dived and got him by his long, gray hair.

When the two came up again they were in the race like current that Williamsburg water.

The small boy kindly knew as the roundsman said.

Struggle as he would O'Laughlin could not get out of the grip of this current, and every now and then the grip of the tide would pull him down.

He and the man he had rescued were saved by the arrival of a tugboat.

Both were unconscious when they were pulled up. They were taken to the Williamsburg Hospital.

The surgeons say that both are in immediate peril from their immersion.

BUILDING WRECKERS FINED.

Fifteen wreckers of buildings were fined amounts from $5 to $15 in the Court of Special Sessions to-day for not sprinkling thoroughly the debris before removing it through the streets in carts.

Justice McKee, who presided, said the dust nuisance from this source was becoming so rampant that contractors who offend in this respect in the future will be in danger of being sent to jail.

Andrew Neuberg, of No. 121 Livingston street, and Bernard Block, of No. 420 East Third street, were the men who were assessed $15. Most of the others were assessed $5.

CRAIN QUILTS AS TENEMENT COMMISSIONER

Resignation Is Accepted and Successor May Be a Citizens' Union Man.

The resignation of Thomas C. T. Crain as Tenement-House Commissioner was forwarded to Mayor McEllan to-day and was accepted.

Mr. Crain, who is in poor health, will sail for Europe shortly, to return in September, when he will take charge of the Tammany campaign.

For several days past Mr. Crain has been confined to his home and his doctors have advised him that he needs a sea voyage and a rest.

Inasmuch as he is depended upon to do important work and to have the organization next fall at that time he determined to abandon the Tenement-House Commission and take a trip to Europe.

While no definite information as to Mr. Crain's successor is obtainable, it is understood that the evolution of local politics in the past few weeks will open the place to a man affiliated with the Citizens' Union.

Such an appointment would serve to make easier an alliance between the Citizens' Union and Tammany Hall in the approaching election.

Politicians would not be surprised if Mayor McEllan should appoint a prominent anti-vice commission worker as Tenement-House Commissioner.

Mr. Crain, it is said, has assurances that Tammany Hall will take care of him in power, and he will resign with honor, not so encumbered with hard work.

Mayor McEllan said later that he had accepted the resignation. Asked if he had any one to fill the vacancy, he said:

"Yes, I have a man in mind that I think will fill the place well, but as I have not been able to consult with him as yet I think it not advisable to give his name."

O'DELL ON THE OCEAN.

LONDON, June 5.—Ex-Gov. Benjamin O'Dell, of New York, is on the ocean heading for home. He sailed from Southampton on Saturday on the American liner St. Louis.

Thomas L. Hamilton was a fellow passenger.

Fierce Fight

to quit

COFFEE